Name: _____

Commonly Confused Words

Sit, Sat, and Set

The words sit and set sound very similar but have different meanings.

The verb sit means to be seated. The past tense of sit is sat.

examples: Simone and Jordan sit on the bench. (present tense)

Simone and Jordan sat on the bench. (past tense)

The verb set means to place something somewhere. The past tense of set is set.

example: I set the book on the table. (can be present or past tense)

Write the word sit, sat, or set on each blank line to correctly complete

Super Teacher Worksheets
Preview
Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

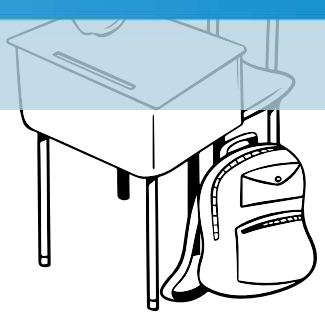
3. _____ the apple on the counter.



4. Dad _____ down on the couch.

5. Please don't _____ in my chair.

6. Mom _____ the freshly cut flowers on the windowsill.

7. I _____ the plates on the table before dinner.

8. The dog _____ by the door.

9. Khalil _____ in the front row of the theater.

10. When we go camping, we all _____ around the campfire.

ANSWER KEY

Commonly Confused Words

Sit, Sat, and Set

The words sit and set sound very similar but have different meanings.

The verb sit means to be seated. The past tense of sit is sat.

examples: Simone and Jordan sit on the bench. (present tense)

Simone and [illegible] bench. (past tense)

The verb set means to [illegible] past tense of set is set.

example: [illegible] on the table. (can [illegible] tense)

Write the word [illegible] or set on each blank line to correct [illegible] lete

Super Teacher Worksheets
Preview
Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

[illegible] the apple on the counter.

4. Dad [illegible] down on the couch.

5. Please don't [illegible] my chair.

6. Mom ___set___ the [illegible] the windowsill.

7. I ___set___ the plates on the table before dinner.

8. The dog ___sat___ by the door.

9. Khalil ___sat___ in the front row of the theater.

10. When we go camping, we all ___sit___ around the campfire.