Thorough and Through

The words thorough and through are spelled with almost the same letters, but they have very different meanings.

Thorough means complete, careful, or attuned to detail.

examples: Dr. Guiati is very thorough when he grades his students' tests. Mrs. Schneider gave the windows a thorough washing.

Through means moving in one side and out the other side or moving around within something.

examples: The snake slithered through the grass. Ella and her friends made their way through the crowd.

Write the word thorough or through in each blank to correctly complete the sentence.

5. Dr. Basnet gave his patient a ____________________ examination.

6. Ashton looked ____________________ the window at the pouring rain.

7. Pradeep trudged ____________________ the snow.

8. Mrs. Reimer was very ____________________ when she graded her students' projects.

9. Chelsea gave a card to her friend who is going ____________________ a hard time.

10. I gave my rabbit, Daisy, a ____________________ brushing.
