Cut out the labels and glue them in the correct boxes. Then, color the computer.
Case contains the brains of your computer that processes information, including the central processing unit (CPU) and other parts.

Keyboard - a device for typing letters, numbers, and symbols into the computer.

Monitor - displays information on a screen.

Mouse - a hand-held device for moving a cursor around the screen.

Printer - puts text and images from the computer onto paper.

Modem/Router - sends a network signal to the computer; used to connect many computers to the network or the Internet.
Case
contains the brains of your computer that processes information, including the central processing unit (CPU) and other parts.

Monitor
displays information on a screen.

Printer
puts words and pictures from the computer onto.

Keyboard
a device for typing letters, numbers, and symbols into the computer.

Mouse
a hand-held device for moving a cursor around the screen.

Modem/Router
sends a wireless network signal to the computer; used to connect many computers to the network or the Internet without wires.

---

PREVIEW

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.