

Name: _____

Positive and Negative Connotations

Connotation is the feeling or emotion that a word evokes in addition to its literal meaning.

Words can have a positive connotation or a negative connotation.

examples: The scent of the candle (positive connotation)

The odor of the candle (negative connotation)

Denotation is the literal definition of a word.

For each of the word sets below, underline the positive connotation in blue, underline the negative connotation in red, and underline the denotation in green.

1. decorated with many fine details, over-the-top, ornate
2. persuade, manipulate, influence someone's decision
3. lazy, having a laid back personality, easy-going
4. discussion, an important conversation, argument
5. look around, browse, snoop
6. having a lot of money, wealthy, loaded
7. concerned, showing interest in someone or something, nosy
8. stare, look directly at, gaze
9. quiet, antisocial, not speaking much
10. taking great care, cautious, fretful

ANSWER KEY

Positive and Negative Connotations

Connotation is the feeling or emotion that a word evokes in addition to its literal meaning.

Words can have a positive connotation or a negative connotation.

examples: The scent of the candle (positive connotation)

The odor of the candle (negative connotation)

Denotation is the literal definition of a word.

For each of the word sets below, underline the positive connotation in blue, underline the negative connotation in red, and underline the denotation in green.

1. decorated with many fine details, over-the-top, ornate
2. persuade, manipulate, influence someone's decision
3. lazy, having a laid back personality, easy-going
4. discussion, an important conversation, argument
5. look around, browse, snoop
6. having a lot of money, wealthy, loaded
7. concerned, showing interest in someone or something, nosy
8. stare, look directly at, gaze
9. quiet, antisocial, not speaking much
10. taking great care, cautious, fretful