

Name: _____

Daily Word Problem

Your class volunteered to take care of the school's flower bed for the month. A diagram of the flower bed is shown below.

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

answer: _____

Name: _____

Daily Word Problem

Autumn is at a local arcade. It requires  $\frac{1}{3}$  of a token to play a video game for 1 minute. How long can Autumn play the video game if she has  $\frac{5}{6}$  of a token?

Show your work.

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

answer: _____

Name: _____

Daily Word Problem

The lowest elevation in New Orleans is  $-8$  feet. The lowest elevation in Buffalo is 571 feet and the lowest elevation in Miami is 0 feet. Use the terms above sea level, below sea level, and at sea level to describe the elevations of the three cities.

New Orleans: _____

Buffalo: _____

Miami: _____

Name: _____

Daily Word Problem

Kevin wants to put textured wallpaper on a wall in his upstairs office. The dimensions of the wall are shown below. How many square feet of wallpaper will he need to cover the wall?

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

answer: _____

Name: _____

Daily Word Problem

Desmond thinks  $-6 > -3$ . Help show Desmond why he is incorrect. Plot  $-6$  and  $-3$  on the number line below. Then write a correct inequality using  $-6$  and  $-3$ . After that, explain to Desmond why his inequality is incorrect by writing a sentence using the words left or right.

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

inequality: _____

---

---

---

---

Daily Word Problem

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

