Diagramming Sentences with Adverbs

An adverb is a word that describes a verb, an adjective, or another adverb.

example: Emily practices often. The word often is an adverb that describes the verb practices. It tells when she practices.

Here is how you make a diagram of a sentence with adverbs:

| Emily | practices | often |

2. George clapped loudly.

Diagramming Sentences with Adverbs

5. Madison smiled sweetly.

8. Avery looked and listened.

9. Lilly and Noah painted.

★ Challenge - Circle the adverbs and underline the verb. Diagram the sentence.

10. Koalas almost always sleep.
Diagramming Sentences with Adverbs

An adverb is a word that describes a verb, an adjective, or another adverb.

Example: Emily practices often.
The word often is an adverb that describes the verb practices. It tells when she practices.

Here is how you make a diagram of a sentence with adverbs:

Emily  practices often.

---

PREVIEW

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

2. George clapped loudly.

   George  clapped loudly.

3. Brittany stomped upstairs.

   Brittany  stomped upstairs.

4. Cheetahs run fast.

   Cheetahs  run fast.
Diagramming Sentences with Adverbs

5. Madison smiled sweetly.

7. Penguins never fly.

8. Avery looked and listened.

9. Lilly and Noah painted.

10. Koalas almost always sleep.

★ Challenge - Circle the adverbs and underline the verb. Diagram the sentence.

ANSWER KEY

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.