i. Carly has a seashell collection. She has 1,596 shells in her collection. She stores the shells in special boxes, each of which has 12 compartments. She keeps one shell in each compartment. How many boxes does she use to store her seashell collection?

Show your work and label your answer.
Carly has a seashell collection. She has 1,596 shells in her collection. She stores the shells in special boxes, each of which has 12 compartments. She keeps one shell in each compartment. How many boxes does she use to store her seashell collection?

Show your work and label your answer.

133 boxes