

Name: _____

Double Negatives

Two negative words used in the same sentence is called a double negative. In a sentence, only one negative word is needed to express a negative idea.

example of a double negative: I don't need no new clothes.

However, double negatives can be fixed. Simply remove one of the negative words from the sentence, or change one of the words into a positive.

example of a correct sentence: I don't need any new clothes.

Read the sentences below. Choose and circle the correct word in parenthesis. Be sure you don't create a double negative sentence.

1. There aren't (any, no) cookies left to eat.
2. I didn't do (nothing, anything) over the weekend.
3. My dad can't find (anywhere, nowhere) to park the car.
4. There isn't (no, any) time left to go to the supermarket before it closes.
5. Emma said she didn't need (either, neither) of those ingredients to make cupcakes.
6. The mission was so top secret that Evan couldn't tell (nobody, anybody) about it.
7. I can't wait until Saturday because I haven't (ever, never) been to a concert before.
8. The store didn't have (none, any) of the presents I was looking for.
