It was Easter morning. Emma went to an egg hunt at the park. Most of the kids there were bigger and faster than Emma.

“What if I can’t find any eggs?” Emma asked Mom and Dad. Emma didn’t want to be the only kid without eggs.

“You will,” Mom smiled.

The egg hunt started. Emma looked for eggs. Soon, most of the kids had eggs but Emma did not.

“I give up,” Emma said.

“Keep looking,” Dad said.

Emma saw a green egg in the grass.

“There’s one!” Emma picked it up.

Then, Emma saw some blue eggs in a bush. There were yellow eggs near a tree. Emma found more eggs on a bench.

“I did it!” Emma said at the end. “I found some eggs!”
