Last Day of School

It's the last day of school! Think about your past school year, and answer the following questions. Use your best handwriting, punctuation, spelling, and grammar, to show what you've learned this year!

What was your favorite subject this year, and why?
_____________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________

Who did you become friends with this year? Why did you choose to become friends with them?
_____________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________

What are you looking forward to learning about next year?
_____________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________