

Energy Transformation

Energy is the ability to do work or cause change. Energy cannot be created or destroyed. Instead, it changes forms.

electrical

light

chemical

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

mechanical

sound

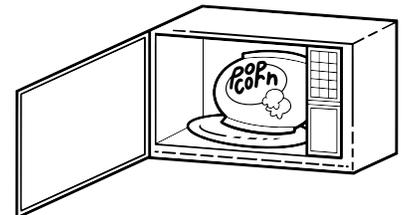

sound

electrical

electrical

heat (thermal)

Even if it is not the main form, all energy transformations also produce heat. For example, light bulbs get hot and you sweat while exercising.