

Name: _____

Indirect Objects

The indirect object shows who or what receives the direct object. It comes before the direct object and answers to whom or what? or from who or what?

Directions: Underline each indirect object in the sentences below.

example: Jacob handed Josh an umbrella when it started to rain.

1. Emma showed her classmates photos of the strawberries she'd grown.
2. Connor loaned Payton his favorite book about prehistoric animals.
3. Watching the video gave me an idea for my science project.
4. Aunt Lois brought us a chocolate cake to share at the picnic.
5. The salesman drew Mason a diagram to explain how the new gadget worked.
6. Kyle baked his mom and dad a three layer cake for their anniversary.
7. "I'll buy you a new pencil," I told Megan, after I accidentally broke hers.
8. Mia is making her sister a bouquet of wildflowers.
9. Mr. Fieldstone taught his students the safety rules for the science lab.
10. Austin sold Mrs. Hines a cup of lemonade for a dollar, and she gave him an extra dollar as a tip.

ANSWER KEY

Indirect Objects

The indirect object shows who or what receives the direct object. It comes before the direct object and answers to whom or what? or from who or what?

Directions: Underline each indirect object in the sentences below.

example: Jacob handed Josh an umbrella when it started to rain.

1. Emma showed her classmates photos of the strawberries she'd grown.
2. Connor loaned Payton his favorite book about prehistoric animals.
3. Watching the video gave me an idea for my science project.
4. Aunt Lois brought us a chocolate cake to share at the picnic.
5. The salesman drew Mason a diagram to explain how the new gadget worked.
6. Kyle baked his mom and dad a three layer cake for their anniversary.
7. "I'll buy you a new pencil," I told Megan, after I accidentally broke hers.
8. Mia is making her sister a bouquet of wildflowers.
9. Mr. Fieldstone taught his students the safety rules for the science lab.
10. Austin sold Mrs. Hines a cup of lemonade for a dollar, and she gave him an extra dollar as a tip.