Double Bubble Map

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.
A double bubble map is used to compare and contrast two items, topics, or ideas. They are placed in the two large, bolded circles. Things they have in common are written or illustrated in the inner circles that connect to both bold circles. Things unique to them go in the outer circles that connect to only one bolded circle.