Homophones are words that sound alike, but have different spellings and different meanings.

Choose the correct word to complete each sentence and write it on the line.

1. I can’t believe we ______________ the state championship game!
   one/won

2. Grandpa only wants ______________ piece of pizza.
   one/won

3. He goes to school with ______________ brother.
   your/you’re

4. My father said ______________ coming over to our house next week.
   your/you’re

5. My mother is going to ______________ me some new shoes.
   by/buy

6. The bus driver stopped ______________ the bus stop to pick up the students.
   by/buy

7. My cousin likes to ______________ jeans with ______________ in them.
   wear/where holes/wholes

8. Do you know ______________ Tina put the ______________ box of cereal?
   wear/where hole/whole

9. The ______________ this weekend is supposed to be sunny and warm.
   whether/weather

10. I don’t know ______________ this pen will write or not.
    whether/weather

11. The snake slithered into ______________ hole.
    its/it’s

12. Did you know that ______________ a long walk to the lake?
    its/it’s

13. Come over ______________ so I can take a picture of you.
    hear/here

14. Did you ______________ the exciting news?
    hear/here
Homophones are words that sound alike, but have different spellings and different meanings.

Choose the correct word to complete each sentence and write it on the line.

1. I can't believe we won the state championship game!
2. Grandpa only wants one piece of pizza.
3. He goes to school with your brother.
4. My father said you're coming over to our house next week.
5. My mother is going to buy me some new shoes.
6. The bus driver stopped by the bus stop to pick up the students.
7. My cousin likes to wear jeans with holes in them.
8. Do you know where Tina put the whole box of cereal?
9. The weather this weekend is supposed to be sunny and warm.
10. I don't know whether this pen will write or not.
11. The snake slithered into its hole.
12. Did you know that it's a long walk to the lake?
13. Come over here so I can take a picture of you.
14. Did you hear the exciting news?

Worksheet written by Chris Conroy