Idioms

Idioms are phrases that mean something different than what the words say.

example: Mitch was hanging out at the park with Dave.

Of course, Mitch and Dave won't be actually hanging from anything. The phrase hanging out is an idiom that means spending time with someone.

Use the idioms in the box above to complete each sentence. Some idioms will not be used.

1. Martin was ______________________ when his best friend moved away.

2. Kris was coughing and sneezing. She was feeling ______________________.

3. When Ben and Barry were arguing, their mother yelled, "Stop! I am ______________________ with you two bickering all the time!"

4. Robert is a very practical, ______________________ person.

5. Hannah is always up before the sun. She is an ______________________.

6. Vicki wouldn't speak to her friend Matt. She gave him the ______________________.
Idioms are phrases that mean something different than what the words say.

example:  Mitch was hanging out at the park with Dave.

Of course, Mitch and Dave won’t be actually hanging from anything. The phrase hanging out is an idiom that means spending time with someone.

Use the idioms in the box above to complete each sentence. Some idioms will not be used.

1. Martin was feeling blue when his best friend moved away.

2. K

3. W

4. R

5. Hannah is always up before the sun. She is an early bird.

6. Vicki wouldn’t speak to her friend Matt. She gave him the cold shoulder.