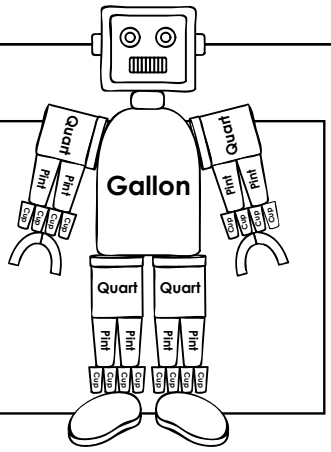
Level 1

Name: _____

Measuring Capacity



Remember: 1 gallon = 4 quarts = 8 pints = 16 cups

1 gallon = 4 quarts
1 quart = 2 pints
1 pint = 2 cups

Fill in the correct number for each statement.

a. 1 gallon = _____ pints

b. 1 gallon = _____ quarts

c. 1 quart = _____ pints

d. 1 quart = _____ cups

Preview
Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

k. 4 pints or 1 quart

l. 2 pints or 2 quarts

Circle the best answer.

m. Sara-Beth puts milk on her cereal. How much milk does she probably use?

1 gallon 1 quart 1 pint

n. Tom wants to paint his bedroom walls a different color. How much paint is he most likely to buy?

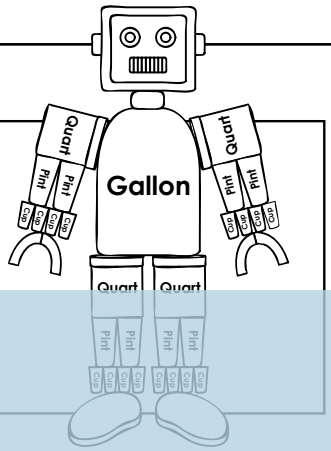
2 gallons 1 quart 3 cups

o. Each day, Isaac feeds his puppy one cup of dog food in the morning and one cup in the evening. How much food does Isaac feed his puppy during a weekend?

1 gallon 1 quart 1 pint

ANSWER KEY

Measuring Capacity



Remember: 1 gallon = 4 quarts = 8 pints = 16 cups

1 gallon = 4 quarts
1 quart = 2 pints
1 pint = 2 cups

Fill in the correct number for each item.

a. 1 gallon = 8 pints

b. 1 gallon = 4 quarts

c. 1 quart = 2 pints

d. 1 quart = 4 cups

Super Teacher Worksheets
Preview
Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

k. (4 pints) or 1 quart

l. 2 pints or (2 cups)

Circle the best answer.

m. Sara-Beth puts milk on her cereal. How much milk will she probably use?

1 gallon (1 pint)

n. Tom wants to paint his bedroom walls a different color. How much paint is he most likely to buy?

(2 gallons) 1 quart 3 cups

o. Each day, Isaac feeds his puppy one cup of dog food in the morning and one cup in the evening. How much food does Isaac feed his puppy during a weekend?

1 gallon (1 quart) 1 pint