

City Skyline Arrays

Objective: Practice basic multiplication skills using arrays.

Materials: City Skyline Grid Paper (page 2 of this PDF file); markers or crayons

Overview: Kids will love designing their own skyscraper arrays! This is a fun math project that reinforces basic multiplication skills.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Here's what to do in a few easy steps:

- Draw vertical rectangles of various sizes.
- Fill in some of the individual squares inside the buildings to make windows.
- Color the skyscrapers. Add a background too!
- Write the multiplication fact shown inside each building.

