An Internet Safety Mini-Book
Illustrated by Caitlin Weibel

Using a laptop or tablet

~ PREVIEW ~

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Sending or posting personal information can be unsafe. Never send or post your address, phone number, school name, or other personal information without permission from a parent.

Never send a picture of yourself to anyone without a parent’s permission.
Be suspicious of e-mail from people you don't know. If you receive one, do not open them or reply to it.

Your passwords are private. Only you and your parents should know your passwords.

Tell a trusted adult if you see or read anything online that makes you uncomfortable.

When you are careful and responsible, the Internet is a powerful tool for learning and having fun.