Color all of the short e words in the poem with a crayon.

Wet Pet
by Lill Pluta

I am wet. My pet is wet.

Don't let me get much wetter.

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.
Wet Pet
Poem by Lill Pluta

Write 8 short e words from the poem.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.