

Name: _____

4th of July

by Susannah Sherwood

Watching fireworks high in the sky
Waiting while the hot dogs fry.

A parading band marches past
Clashing cymbals coming last.

Everywhere red, white and blue
Flags, t-shirts, and cupcakes too!

A time of honor for our country
Being grateful that we are free.

We love America, you and I—
So let's celebrate the 4th of July!
