The library's calling.
Please come inside.
I'm sure you will love it.
I'll be your guide.

There are helpful people,
Computers, too.
And thousands of treasures—
Books old and new!

Books thick and thin,
Thrilling books, chilling books,
Books to make you grin.

The tour will end now,
But before you go home,
Why don't you borrow
A few books of your own?
1. The author of the poem says there are “thousands of treasures” in the library. What are they?
   a. computers
   b. magazines
   c. books
   d. gold coins

2. Which set of letters represents the rhyming pattern in the poem?
   a. A A B B
   b. A B C D
   c. A B A B
   d. A B C B

4. What suggestion does the author make at the end of the poem?
   a. sign up for a library card
   b. volunteer at the summer book sale
   c. borrow some books to take home
   d. use one of the computers
Library Treasures
By Guy Belleranti

Write about a time you visited your local library.
Who did you go with?
What was your favorite part?
Describe the types of books, magazines, or movies you borrowed.

_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________

Preview
Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.
1. The author of the poem says there are “thousands of treasures” in the library. What are they?
   - a. computers
   - b. magazines
   - c. books
   - d. gold coins

2. Which set of letters represents the rhyming pattern in the poem?
   - a. A A B B
   - b. A B C D
   - c. A B A B
   - d. A B C B

3. According to the author, what three topics can you read about if you visit the library?
   1. animals like wolves and whales
   2. Jupiter
   3. fairytales

4. What suggestion does the author make at the end of the poem?
   - a. sign up for a library card
   - b. volunteer at the summer book sale
   - c. borrow some books to take home
   - d. use one of the computers

PREVIEW

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.