

Name: _____

Reflexive and Intensive Pronouns

-self or -selves

Circle the reflexive or intensive pronoun. Underline its antecedent. Then circle R (reflexive) or I (intensive) to identify the pronoun's function in the sentence.

(Remember to look out for prepositions!)

1. If no one lends her a copy, Sofia will buy the game for herself. R I
2. We challenged ourselves with a time limit for beating the game. R I
3. Do you think I can solve all the puzzles by myself? R I
4. As long as the screen itself isn't broken, Ava can fix the tablet. R I
5. Fatima wants to see for herself if the game is worth the hype. R I
6. You still can't defeat the boss yourself, can you? R I

11. The boy excitedly buckled _____ into the roller coaster. R I
12. I heard Mrs. Esparza _____ designed some of the rides! R I
13. The ride can shut _____ off in case of emergencies. R I
14. "Can you three find the exit _____?" Mom asked. R I
15. Are we a large enough group by _____ to fill a car? R I
16. Lucas made _____ a promise to visit all the attractions. R I
17. My friends paid for their concession snacks _____. R I
18. Olivia likes water parks, but I _____ prefer theme parks. R I
19. My friends and I planned the day's schedule _____. R I
20. Dad told me, "You shouldn't pressure _____ into riding." R I

ANSWER KEY

Reflexive and Intensive Pronouns

-self or -selves

Circle the reflexive or intensive pronoun. Underline its antecedent. Then circle R (reflexive) or I (intensive) to identify the pronoun's function in the sentence.

(Remember to look out for prepositions!)

1. If no one lends her a copy, Sofia will buy the game for herself. (R) I
2. We challenged ourselves with a time limit for beating the game. (R) I

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

19. My friends and I planned the day's schedule ourselves. R (I)
20. Dad told me, "You shouldn't pressure yourself into riding." (R) I