

Name: _____

Subject and Object Pronouns

Subject Pronouns

Subject pronouns replace a noun in the subject of a sentence and tell who or what is doing something in a sentence.

I, you, he, she, it, we, they

Object Pronouns

Object pronouns replace a noun in the predicate of a sentence and tell to what or to whom something is being done.

me, you, him, her, it, us, them

Circle the pronoun that correctly completes each sentence. Then write whether it is a subject or object pronoun on the line.

1. (I / Me) am going on vacation to Costa Rica. _____

6. (We / Us) all need a passport to travel to a different country. _____
7. The taxi was waiting for (they / them) outside the airport. _____
8. The kind flight attendant gave (she / her) extra snacks during the flight. _____
9. It was a long flight, but (we / us) finally arrived! _____
10. (You / Them) should go look for our suitcases while I look for our taxi. _____

ANSWER KEY

Subject and Object Pronouns

Subject Pronouns

Subject pronouns replace a noun in the subject of a sentence and tell who or what is doing something in a sentence.

I, you, he, she, it, we, they

Object Pronouns

Object pronouns replace a noun in the predicate of a sentence and tell to what or to whom something is being done.

me, you, him, her, it, us, them

Circle the pronoun that correctly completes each sentence. Then write whether it is a subject or object pronoun on the line.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

