Scrambled Sentences

Statements are sentences that tell you information about something. Statements end with a period (.).

Questions are sentences that ask you something. Questions end with a question mark (?).

Unscramble the words to form a question and a statement.

1. my is favorite basketball sport

Question: ____________________________________________________________________________

Statement: __________________________________________________________________________

Is basketball my favorite sport?

2. those are ready cookies eat to

Question: ____________________________________________________________________________

Statement: __________________________________________________________________________

3. the in yard there rabbit a is

Question: ____________________________________________________________________________

Statement: __________________________________________________________________________

4. very the hot is stove

Question: ____________________________________________________________________________

Statement: __________________________________________________________________________

5. ________________________________________________________________________________

Question: ____________________________________________________________________________

Statement: __________________________________________________________________________
Scrambled Sentences

Statements are sentences that tell you information about something. Statements end with a period (.)

Questions are sentences that ask you something. Questions end with a question mark (?).

Unscramble the words to form a question and a statement.

Basketball is my favorite sport.

Christmas is your favorite holiday.

Those cookies are ready to eat.

There is a rabbit in the yard.

The stove is very hot.

Statements

Questions