

Name: _____

Formatting Titles

The titles of major works are italicized when typing or underlined when handwriting. Major works are often long or contain multiple shorter works.

examples: novel, play, newspaper, magazine, journal, anthology,
epic (book-length) poem, movie, TV show, album, visual artwork

The titles of shorter or more minor works are placed in quotation marks.

examples: short story, poem, chapter, article, essay, TV episode, song, speech

Correctly underline or add quotation marks around the title(s) in each sentence.

1. Dad loves every single song on the Abbey Road track list.
2. If we must title our papers, I'll call mine The Role of Dialogue.

7. Backyard Bonanza—that show Leo likes—might get another season!
8. My poem, Summer Salutations, was published in Reader's Digest.
9. Zyon's report cites the article Changes in Local Food Chains.
10. The Shakespeare festival is performing Romeo and Juliet for free!

Write a sentence announcing your new podcast and its first episode.

ANSWER KEY

Formatting Titles

The titles of major works are italicized when typing or underlined when handwriting. Major works are often long or contain multiple shorter works.

examples: novel, play, newspaper, magazine, journal, anthology,
epic (book-length) poem, movie, TV show, album, visual artwork

The titles of shorter or more minor works are placed in quotation marks.

examples: short story, poem, chapter, article, essay, TV episode, song, speech

