We are going on a trip.
Not on a plane! Not in a ship!
We will ride in our new car.
Buckle up--we will go far.

Quiet, now. Don’t make a peep.
Baby brother’s fast asleep.
I’m as quiet as a mouse ...
And here we are--at Grandma’s house!
The Car Trip
by Ruth Donnelly

1. Where is the family going?

2. Who falls asleep in the poem?

3. What does the yellow light mean?

4. What does sister say?

5. What kind of car does the family have?
   a. old car
   b. slow car
   c. new car
   d. fast car

Super Teacher Worksheets - www.superteacherworksheets.com
The Car Trip
by Ruth Donnelly

Color the stop light.

The top light is red.
The middle light is yellow.
The bottom light is green.

If you could go on a car trip, where would you want to go?
The Car Trip
by Ruth Donnelly

1. Where is the family going?
   to grandma’s house (also accept “on a trip”)

2. Who falls asleep in the poem?
   baby brother

3. What does the yellow light mean?
   drive slow (or slow, slow slow)

4. What does sister say?
   “Are we there yet?”

5. What kind of car does the family have?
   c. new car  d. fast car

Preview
Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.