

Name: _____

Lily and the Missing Keys

By Guy Belleranti

Lily's mom couldn't find her keys.
They weren't in her pockets or purse.

"Let's look where we put the groceries," Lily said.

"Good idea," Mom said.

They looked in the refrigerator. They looked

Preview

Please log in to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

They did not find Mom's keys.

"Maybe my keys are in the car," Mom said.

"No," Lily said. "You used them to get in the house."

"You're right, but then where are they?"

"Hmm." Lily thought hard. Suddenly, she smiled. "I have an idea."

She opened the house door to the garage. "Yippee!" she cried. There, in the doorknob were Mom's keys!

Name: _____

Lily and the Missing Keys

By Guy Belleranti

1. What were Mom and Lily doing when Mom lost her keys?
  - a. playing a board game
  - b. making cookies
  - c. putting away groceries

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

d. on the counters

3. Why does Lily think Mom's keys must be in the kitchen?

---

---

4. Where does Lily find Mom's keys at the end of the story?

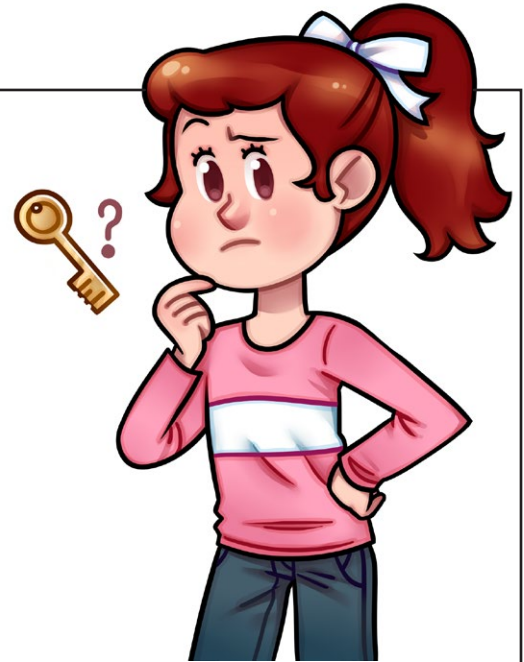

---

---

Name: _____

Lily and the Missing Keys

By Guy Belleranti

Draw lines to match the words from the story with their meanings.

1. garage • • a handle on a door that you use

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

3. doorknob • • food items you buy from the store
4. pantry • • where food is kept in order to stay cold
5. yippee • • a building where cars are stored
6. refrigerator • • small room where food is stored

ANSWER KEY

Lily and the Missing Keys

By Guy Belleranti

1. What were Mom and Lily doing when Mom lost her keys?
  - a. playing a board game
  - b. making cookies
  - c. putting away groceries

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

- d. on the counters
3. Why does Lily think Mom's keys must be in the kitchen?

Lily thinks Mom's keys are in the kitchen because they haven't gone anywhere else since they got home.
  4. Where does Lily find Mom's keys at the end of the story?

Lily finds Mom's keys in the doorknob of the door leading from the garage into the house.

ANSWER KEY

Lily and the Missing Keys

By Guy Belleranti

Draw lines to match the words from the story with their meanings.

1. garage

• a handle on a door that you use

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

3. doorknob

• food items you buy from the store

4. pantry

• where food is kept in order to stay cold

5. yippee

• a building where cars are stored

6. refrigerator

• small room where food is stored