Zac and Sam went to the store because they wanted food. Zac wanted ham. Sam wanted chips and dip.

“I want to get ham,” said Zac.

“I do not want to get ham,” said Sam. “I want to get chips and dip.”

“I do not like chips and dip,” said Zac.

“What are we going to do?” asked Sam.

The store was big. There were lots of things to get. Zac and Sam could not make up their minds.

“Do you want to eat oranges?” asked Zac.

“I do not know if I want oranges,” said Sam. “Do you want to eat eggs?”

“No, I do not know if I want eggs. We could get figs or nuts.”

“No, I do not know what I want. Do you like pie?” asked Sam.

“No! Do you want to eat cake?” asked Zac.

“No, but I know what we can buy,” said Sam.

Zac and Sam got ice cream.
