At the store, Anna saw the prettiest dollhouse. "Please, can I have it?" she asked Mom.

Mom checked the price. "$40? That's too much. But I'll tell you what. If you earn the money, you can buy it."

At home, Anna ran straight to her piggy bank. She counted her money. "Only $5?"

Anna ran back downstairs.

Mom was making lunch.

"Can I do some extra chores?" Anna asked.

"Well," Mom said, "You can set the table. I'll pay you 25 cents."

So, Anna set the table. She put the quarter in her piggy bank.

Later, Mom was cleaning. "You can dust," she told Anna. "I'll pay you 25 cents."

So, Anna dusted. She put the quarter in her piggy bank.

"Do you have any more chores for me?" Anna asked Mom.

"Not today," Mom said.

Anna counted her money again. "Only $5.50? This will take forever."
