“Let’s paint our treehouse brown,” said Monkey.

“No,” said Squirrel. “Let’s paint it red.”

“What color do you want, Sloth?” asked Monkey.

“Oh no,” said Monkey. “We all want different colors.”

“What are we going to do?” asked Squirrel.

“I…have…an…idea,” said Sloth. Sloth told Monkey and Squirrel his idea.

Monkey and Squirrel liked Sloth’s idea.

Monkey painted half of the treehouse brown.

Squirrel painted half of the treehouse red.

Sloth painted the door of the treehouse green.

“Pretty!” they all said.
Let’s Paint the Treehouse

By Guy Belleranti

1. What color did Squirrel want to paint the treehouse? ___________________________
   What color did Monkey want to paint the treehouse? ___________________________
   What color did Sloth want to paint the treehouse? ___________________________

2. Who chose the color of the treehouse? Explain.
   __________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________
   __________________________________________________________________________

3. How does Sloth speak?
   a. quickly  b. softly
   c. loudly    d. slowly

4. This is a story about...
   a. friends who always agree
   b. friends who play games
   c. friends who make a decision
   d. friends who let each other down
Let’s Paint the Treehouse

By Guy Belleranti

Draw a straight line to match each word on the left with its definition on the right.

1. treehouse
   - a small house built in the branches of a tree

2. sloth
   - a slow-moving mammal that hangs upside down

3. squirrel
   - an animal related to apes and humans, with a tail

4. monkey
   - a slow-moving mammal that hangs upside down

5. different
   - an animal related to apes and humans, with a tail

6. idea
   - a small animal that eats nuts and seeds
1. What color did Squirrel want to paint the treehouse? _______________________
2. What color did Monkey want to paint the treehouse? ______________________
3. What color did Sloth want to paint the treehouse? __________________________

2. Who chose the color of the treehouse? Explain.
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________
___________________________________________________________________________

3. How does Sloth speak?
   a. quickly
   b. softly
   c. loudly
   d. slowly

4. This is a story about...
   a. friends who always agree
   b. friends who play games
   c. friends who make a decision
   d. friends who let each other down

Let’s Paint the Treehouse
By Guy Belleranti
They all chose the colors. Monkey painted part of the treehouse brown. Squirrel painted part of it red. Sloth painted the door green.
Draw a straight line to match each word on the left with its definition on the right.

1. treehouse
2. sloth
3. squirrel
4. monkey
5. different
6. idea

- not the same
- a plan
- a small house built in the branches of a tree
- a slow-moving mammal that hangs upside down
- an animal related to apes and humans, with a tail
- a small animal that eats nuts and seeds

Let’s Paint the Treehouse

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.