“I’m making chocolate chip cookies,” said Libby’s brother Max.

“Can I help?” Libby asked.

“You’re too little,” said Max.

Max checked. “I put in sugar and butter. I put in eggs, salt, and flour. What did I forget?”

Libby ran to the cupboard for a jar. “You forgot the chocolate chips.”

“You are right,” Max said. “Thank you, Libby.”

Libby smiled. “See? I’m not too little to help!”
