I’m tired of my sister chasing me around.

‘Cause I just solved my problem—a secret hideaway.
1. Show the problem and solution in the poem.

2. What does the phrase "track me down" mean in the poem?
   a. to hide from me
   b. to figure out where I am
   c. to hear me
   d. to run fast

3. Name three places at your home that would make a good secret hideaway.

_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
_________________________________________________________________
“Problem Solved” Poem

Activity Ideas

1. Students can draw a picture of a place they might use as a secret hideaway in their home. Then, write two or three sentences to describe it.

2. Before reading the poem, tell students about the problem.

4. Ask the students to tell what might happen next in the poem. They could write their ideas in a complete sentence. Higher students could even add an additional stanza to the poem.

5. Have the students -

   Find two contractions, and underline them in blue.
   (I’m and she’ll. There may be 3, if you count the word ‘cause.)

   Find two compound words, and underline them in red.
   (Everywhere and hideaway are the two compound words. The word today is sometimes considered a compound word as well.)
Answers will vary.

1. Show the problem and solution in the poem.

2. What does the phrase “track me down” mean in the poem?
   a. to hide from me
   b. to figure out where I am
   c. to hear me
   d. to run fast

3. Name three places at your home that would make a good secret hideaway.
   ___________________________________________________________________
   ___________________________________________________________________
   ___________________________________________________________________