Rory's Wait

by Anita N. Amin

Rory scanned the shelves in her school library. She pulled out a book. "No." She pushed it back in. She pulled out another book, and another. "No, no..."

She wanted to read the book, Robot Bakes A Cake, but she could not find it.

The librarian, Mrs. Shah, checked her computer. "It is here in the library

The book had pictures of a robot and cake. "That is the book I want!" Rory said.

Rory wanted to ask when he would be done, but she didn't want to be rude. Nobody liked rushing through a good book.

She waited and waited. She frowned. How long would she have to wait?

Rory picked another book. She tried to read as she waited. She snuck a glance at the boy. He was still reading the same page!

Finally, the boy closed the book. He put it back on the shelf.

Rory rushed over to the book. At home, she savored every word.

"How was the book?" Mrs. Shah asked when Rory returned it.

"Worth the wait!" Rory smiled.
