Emma’s Lunch Surprise
by Anita N. Amin

Emma hurried to her table in the school lunchroom. She couldn’t wait to look in her lunch bag. Mom had told Emma to expect a special surprise for lunch.

“It must be a really big surprise,” Emma told her friend Alice as they sat down. “My bag feels heavier than usual.”

“Hurry,” Alice said. “Let’s see your surprise.”

Beaming, Emma reached into her bag. She pulled out an apple and frowned. “But I don’t like apples. Mom does. I like bananas.”

Emma reached into her bag again. This time she pulled out a banana. “Wow,” Alice said, her eyes growing wide. “You got what you wanted. Try it again.”

So Emma reached into her bag again. She pulled out some peanuts. “But I don’t like peanuts. Mom does. I like cheese.”

Emma reached into her bag. She smiled when she pulled out some cheese. “It’s a magic bag! Let me try!” Alice seized the bag. She told it, “I want chocolate cake.”

Grinning, Alice reached in and pulled out… prunes. “Yuck! Your bag isn’t magic. I do not like prunes.”

“Me neither…” Emma looked around. Suddenly she laughed. “But Mom does.” Then Emma waved to Mom, who had come to visit for lunch!
