Pumpkin Hunt

By Annette Gulati

I stomp around the pumpkin patch, hunting for the perfect catch.

I search more choices one by one, and find a gem that weighs a ton.

I take it home and wipe it clean, ‘Cause this one says, “Happy Halloween!”
Pumpkin Hunt

By Annette Gulati

1. What kind of a pumpkin did the main character choose?
   a. a small one
   b. a heavy one
   c. a tall one
   d. a clean one

2. What will the main character in the poem most likely do with her pumpkin?
   ____________________________________________

3. What does the word "veil" mean in the poem?
   a. pair
   b. tree
   c. ring
   d. covering

4. What is the setting of this poem?
   ____________________________________________

5. Write the five pairs of rhyming words in this poem.
   ____________________________ and ____________________________
   ____________________________ and ____________________________
   ____________________________ and ____________________________
   ____________________________ and ____________________________
   ____________________________ and ____________________________
1. What kind of a pumpkin did the main character choose?
   a. a small one
   b. a heavy one
   c. a tall one
   d. a clean one

2. What will the main character in the poem most likely do with her pumpkin?
   She will take it home and carve a face in it.

3. What does the word “veil” mean in the poem?
   a. pair
   b. tree
   c. ring
   d. covering

4. What is the setting of this poem?
   The poem takes place before Halloween, in a pumpkin patch.

5. Write the five pairs of rhyming words in this poem.

   ______________________ and ____________________________
   ______________________ and ____________________________
   ______________________ and ____________________________
   ______________________ and ____________________________
   ______________________ and ____________________________