Rabbit Habit

By Liana Mahoney

I have a rabbit habit.
I like to crunch and chew
On celery logs and carrot sticks,
And apple wedges, too.
Rabbit Habit

By Liana Mahoney

1. What is a rabbit habit?

__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

2. List four action verbs in this poem.

_____________________________ _____________________________
_____________________________ _____________________________

Challenge: Write another verse for this poem.

__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

Preview
Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.
Rabbit Habit

By Liana Mahoney

1. What is a rabbit habit?

__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

2. List four action verbs in this poem.
_____________________________ _____________________________
_____________________________ _____________________________

Challenge:
Write another verse for this poem.
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________________

A rabbit habit is when you like to eat vegetables and fruits.

Answers will vary.

chomp chew

chomp crunch munch