

Name: _____

What Kitten Sees

by Liana Mahoney

Twinkling stars in skies of green,

Sparkling heavens, jeweled scene.

Drips of silver glimmer bright,

Clouds of glass in blues and reds.

Now I know what kitten sees,

From underneath the Christmas tree!

Name: _____

What Kitten Sees

by Liana Mahoney

1. What is this poem mostly about?
 - a. a kitten playing with Christmas tree ornaments
 - b. someone getting a kitten for Christmas
 - c. a kitten looking up at the decorations on a tree
 - d. a kitten looking up at the stars in the sky

2. The first line of the poem says:

Why d

~ PREVIEW ~

Please log in or register to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

3. Line 6 mentions "clouds of glass in blues and reds." What is this referring to?

4. Why do you think a Christmas tree would be exciting to a kitten?

Challenge: On the back of this paper, describe what a kitten might see if it were looking up at a tree outside on a warm, summer day.

Name: _____

ANSWER KEY

What Kitten Sees

by Liana Mahoney

1. What is this poem mostly about?
 - a. a kitten playing with Christmas tree ornaments
 - b. someone getting a kitten for Christmas
 - c. a kitten looking up at the decorations on a tree
 - d. a kitten looking up at the stars in the sky

2. The first line of the poem says:

Why d

The kil branc

~ PREVIEW ~

Please log in or register to download
the printable version of this worksheet.

the green

3. Line 6 mentions "clouds of glass in blues and reds." What is this referring to?

This line is referring to glass ornaments that are hanging on the tree.

4. Why do you think a Christmas tree would be exciting to a kitten?

Answers will vary. Students may mention that it is filled with shiny objects. It would also be unusual for a kitten to see a tree inside the house.

Challenge: On the back of this paper, describe what a kitten might see if it were looking up at a tree outside on a warm, summer day.