she quickly became a bookworm and dreamed of being a writer. Her favorite subjects in school were English and languages. No surprise there. By the age of six, she wrote her first story. By the age of eleven, she wrote her first full length novel. That's pretty incredible!

Upon graduating university, she worked a series of jobs in London as a secretary and teacher. She also worked at Amnesty International. In 1991, Rowling left England to work as an English teacher in Portugal. That's where she met her first husband. They quickly got married and welcomed a child shortly after.

she never gave up on her writing. She continued to write stories every chance she got. She would write in cafes as her daughter napped.

"Happiness can be found, even in the darkest of times, if one only remebers to turn on the light."

- J. K. Rowling

Rowling first dreamed up Harry Potter when she was delayed on a train. She was imagining creating a place where a child could have power. This is what sparked the idea of Hogwarts, the School of Witchcraft and Wizardry.

Over the next five years, she developed her ideas and outlined the series of seven books. She scribbled her notes by hand on scraps of paper and napkins. Soon she had a pile of notes that she had to piece together. Despite living in poverty and suffering from depression, she persevered.

When she finished the first manuscript (Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone), it was rejected. That seems unbelievable! In fact, it was rejected a dozen times. This went on for a year. Then Cut to today, and Rowling is wildly successful in her professional career. As you all know, the merchandising of Harry Potter alone is pretty extraordinary. She gets royalty checks for each Harry Potter item sold, from lunch boxes to umbrellas! And of course, she landed even more fame and money once the eight Harry Potter movies were made. She has also written many other books like the Fantastic Beasts series, and some books for adults.

Rowling got married again and
