Rosa Parks

Rosa Parks helped change the laws in America. Because of her actions, everyone in America has equal rights.

Rosa Parks was a Black woman born in 1913 in Alabama. At that time there were laws segregating Black and white people. Segregating means keeping them apart.

Rosa Parks went to a school with all African American students. White and Black were forced to go to different schools. After she got her high school diploma, she helped her family earn money by working as a seamstress in a department store.

Rosa Parks believed everyone should be treated equally and refused to give up her seat on the bus.

Court ruled that segregation was illegal. Now white and Black could go to the same schools. They did not have to give up their seats on buses. They had the same rights as everyone else in America.

Rosa Parks is considered a hero today because she believed everyone should be treated equally. She was honored in 1996 by President Bill Clinton, who gave her the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the highest honor a citizen can receive.
