

Types of Sentences

Declarative

A declarative sentence tells about something. It is also called a statement. It ends with a period.

Interrogative

An interrogative sentence asks something. It is also called a question. It ends with a question mark.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

excitement, or a strong feeling. It is also called an exclamation. It ends with an exclamation point.

It is a very windy day!

Lucy is swinging so high!

to do something. It is also called a command. A command usually ends in a period. It can also end in an exclamation point.

Zip up your jacket.

Wear your hat because it is cold!