ILLINOIS

The illustration features a superhero character with brown hair, wearing a blue suit and a red cape with a white shield on the back containing the letters 'M.T.S.'. He is flying over the Illinois state emblem, which includes a bald eagle with wings spread, a banner with the word 'STATE', and a shield with red and white stripes and a green wreath. The year '1818' is inscribed on a scroll below the shield. The word 'ILLINOIS' is written in large, bold, blue capital letters at the bottom of the illustration.
