I don't know what state I'm in now, but I can tell this has been a very important place throughout American history.

I just came from Thomas Jefferson's home - Monticello. If you're not sure what it looks like, you can see it pictured on the back on an American nickel.

After that, I drove by Arlington National Cemetery to pay my respects to the soldiers who fought for our country's freedom. Over 300,000 soldiers were buried there.

This state borders Washington D.C. and the Potomac River.

I wish I knew the name of this interesting, historical state.

Do you know what state I'm visiting?
Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.
Answer: Virginia

~PREVIEW~

Please log in or register to download the printable version of this worksheet.