

Penelope Peabody

Lost in the United States

A few days ago I was in Oregon and I've been following the roads along the original Oregon Trail. I thought it would be exciting to follow it to where the trail's starting point was located. From the 1840s through the 1860s, about half a million people traveled westward along this trail. Families show me where I am. He didn't say the name of the state, but he said I was near St. Louis. He recommended I go to the top of the the Gateway Arch for a marvelous view of the Mississippi River.

Do you know which state
I'm in this time?
