On a sunny morning, Ruby went to the fair with her parents. There were rides, games, farm animals, and food.

Ruby stopped at a game. The worker held up a baseball. He pointed to a can behind him. "Hit the can and get a prize."

Ruby looked at the prizes. She saw a big stuffed pony. She really wanted it.

Ruby threw the ball. It went to the right of the can. "I missed."

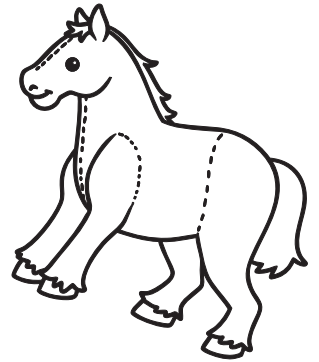

"Two more tries," the man said.

Ruby threw the ball. It went right again. "I missed again!" Ruby frowned.

"One more try," the man said.

A bee buzzed around Ruby's head. It landed on Ruby's right arm. Ruby was scared. She quickly jolted to the left and accidentally threw the ball.

Whack! The ball hit the can. "I won!" Ruby cried. She cuddled with her new pony the whole way home. Now she didn't mind bees so much, either.
