Shades of Meaning: Adjectives

Synonyms and other groups of words used to describe similar ideas often have small but important differences in meaning. Always use the most accurate adjective or simile. Strong, descriptive adjectives help readers better picture and emotionally connect with the text.

The box was big. —→ basic; not very descriptive

The box was hefty. —→ describes primarily weight but possibly size too

The box was enormous. —→ implies the box is big to an impressive degree

The box was sizeable. —→ implies the box is big to a reasonable degree

Each adjective in the table gives a basic description. Think of at least four different adjectives or similes that describe similar qualities. Use a thesaurus if necessary.
