

Name: _____

Shades of Meaning: Adverbs

Synonyms and other groups of words used to describe similar ideas often have small but important differences in meaning. Always use the most accurate adverb or adverbial phrase. Strong, descriptive adverbs help readers better picture and emotionally connect with the text.

Conor sighed sadly. → describes only general sadness

Conor sighed with sorrow. → describes a particularly deep sadness

Conor sighed wistfully. → implies a sad longing for something

Conor sighed mournfully. → implies sadness caused by the loss of something

Each adverb in the table gives a basic description. Think of at least four different adverbs or adverbial phrases, including prepositional phrases and similes, that describe similar conditions. Use a thesaurus if necessary.

quietly	kindly	unkindly	tiredly
