The picture to the right shows Eddie and Olivia, exploring an underground cave.

They came upon a passage that was lit with torches. Eddie and Olivia wonder what is at the end of the passage.

On the lines below, write dialog from their conversation.

Eddie: Look, Olivia! I see fire ahead.

Olivia: They're torches, hanging on the wall, and they're lit! Somebody's in here.

Eddie: __________________________________________________________

Olivia: __________________________________________________________

Eddie: __________________________________________________________

Olivia: __________________________________________________________

Eddie: __________________________________________________________

Olivia: __________________________________________________________

Eddie: __________________________________________________________

Olivia: __________________________________________________________

Eddie: __________________________________________________________

Olivia: __________________________________________________________

Eddie: __________________________________________________________

Olivia: __________________________________________________________