Writing Expressions

One-Step

Write an expression using a variable to represent each situation.

example: You have 3 times as much money as Maria.

3*m*

- 1. A player scored 5 more points than Rodger.
- 2. You had $20 but spent d dollars on ice cream.

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Ο.	Alice had 12 heedles in her sewing kir, but then lost // heedles.
7.	Milo earns $13 per hour at his new job.
•
8.	There are w windows on each of 8 buildings.
9.	The librarian has 682 books and bought b more.

10. Mrs. Murphy had 83 rulers to divide among her students.

Write your own sentence to represent the given expression.

11. 7*x*

12. 32 – a

ANSWER KEY

Note: Variables may vary.

Writing Expressions

One-Step

Write an expression using a variable to represent each situation.

example: You have 3 times as much money as Maria.

3*m*

Preview

Please log in to download the printable version of this worksheet.

Write your own sentence to represent the given expression.

11. 7x (answers will vary)

12. 32 - Q (answers will vary)