Recommendations for Lesson:

Before presenting this persuasive writing prompt to students, you may want to have a class discussion to present both sides of the issue.

Arguments in favor of school uniforms might include:
- Uniforms prevent students from being judged by their clothing.
- Uniforms look nice and neat. It's more like “dressing up.”
- A wardrobe full of trendy, name-brand clothes can cost more.

Arguments against school uniforms might include:
- Do the uniforms look nice?
- Would they want to wear a uniform to school? Why or why not?
- Why might some schools require uniforms?

When writing their persuasive essays, students should be encouraged to include a topic sentence (or topic paragraph) stating their opinion, followed by persuasive details to support their point of view. Writers can also acknowledge the opinions of those who might have a different view, followed by an argument to make their case.
