Voice and Audience

Stylistic and tonal choices, such as sentence structure, word choice, or level of formality, help create an author's voice and give writing personality.

Rewrite the bland text below using a consistent style and tone appropriate for a respected travel magazine.

Include additional details to develop your voice, but do not change the overall meaning.

The trip was very nice. The weather was too. There were lots of things to see. The places were very pretty. There was also a lot to do. It would be hard to get bored. You might not like the food, but I did. I would suggest a trip here.
